

ANNOUNCEMENTS

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR RESEARCH IN INCOME AND WEALTH

Thirteenth General Conference

August–September 1973

The Thirteenth General Conference of the International Association for Research in Income and Wealth will be held at Balatonfüred, Hungary, August 31–September 5, 1973. The tentative list of papers scheduled for presentation is as follows:

Session 1. The treatment of human resources in the national accounts

Organizer: John W. Kendrick, The Conference Board, 845 Third Ave., New York, N.Y., U.S.A.

Papers: Theodore Schultz—A review of leading issues in the field of human investment and capital

John W. Kendrick—A structuring of sector accounts to accommodate human investment and wealth, illustrated by estimates for the U.S. economy, 1929, 1948, and 1969

Mary Jean Bowman—Postschool learning and human resource accounting
Devindra Sharma—The treatment of human resources in the economic accounting of India—Review and recommendations

Eivind Hoffman—The treatment of investment and capital in economic accounting, with reference to Norway

Andras Nyilas—The efficiency of real and human capital in industry, with reference to Hungary

Session 2. Problems of determining and measuring the reliability of national accounts

Organizer: L. S. Berman, Director of Statistics, Department of Trade and Industry, 1 Victoria St., London SW1H 0ET, England

Papers: S. Wells and G. Leclerc—Canadian experience

Allan H. Young—United States experience

Kjeld Bjerke—Denmark's experiences

J. B. D. Derksen—Netherlands experiences

Janos Arvay—Hungary's experiences

H. A. Fell—Developing countries' experiences

V. H. Woodward—The reliability of the U.K. national accounts and their use in medium term projections of the economy

U.K. Central Statistical Office—United Kingdom experiences

George Novak—The criteria for determining the reliability of the national accounts

Session 3. Economic accounting for developing countries

Organizer: M. Mukherjee, Indian Statistical Institute, 203 Barrackpore Trunk Road, Calcutta-35, India

Papers: Uma Roy Choudhury—Simplified system of national accounts suitable for developing countries

Michael Ward—An extension of the new SNA "supply disposition" table for use in developing planning

Richard M. Barkay—National accounting with inadequate data: lessons of experience
Yosimasa Kurabayashi—Problems of national accounts data adjustments for developing countries by major regions
William I. Abraham—Accounting for the public sector in developing countries
J. Sourrouille—National accounting experience in Argentina with special reference to the new SNA
M. Mukherjee and D. S. Prasada Rao—Economic accounts for developing countries
J. Ivanov and Dr. Kuzmin—Some balances of the national economy and their usefulness in economic accounting for developing countries
Harry Oshima—National accounts for surplus labour economies

Session 4. Distribution of the benefits of public expenditures

Organizer: Branko Horvat, Sedmog Jula 69, Belgrade, Yugoslavia

Papers: Vera Cao-Pinna—Italy
Pavle Sicherl—Yugoslavia
Howard Wachtel—U.S.A.
Osmo Forssell—Finland
D. A. Allahverdjan—U.S.S.R.
Fernando Rezende—Brazil

Session 5. Problems of measuring the distribution of wealth

Organizer: Harold Lydall, School of Social Studies, University of East Anglia, University Plain, Norwich NOR 88C, Norfolk, England

Papers: A. B. Atkinson—Distribution of wealth in Britain
James D. Smith—Estimating the concentration of personal wealth in the United States
Uma Roy Choudhury—Distribution of Wealth in India
Kjeld Bjerke—Denmark
Claudio de Moura Castro—Brazil
Patrick M. Lyons—Ireland
Jenny Podoluk and Frank Emmerson—Canada

Session 6. Contributed papers

Papers to be announced.