

SECOND INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON
PROBLEMS OF COMPILATION OF INPUT-OUTPUT TABLES

March 13-19, 1988, Baden near Vienna, Austria

Preliminary Program and Call for Papers

Following the successful First International Meeting on Problems of Compilation of Input-Output Tables, May 1985, the Austrian Statistical Society is to arrange another meeting of this kind. The Meeting will bring together about 60 participants consisting both of experts in the statistical compilation of Make and Use matrices and experts in the construction of such matrices for use in Input-Output tables and for general economic analysis. The United Nations Statistical Office has declared its special interest in this Meeting in view of the ongoing revision of the SNA.

Accordingly, the basic structure would be as follows:

Layout of table frameworks as regards desirable submatrices and options for extension; regional tables
IO-statistics within national statistical systems; ex post and ex ante appreciations
Reconciliation with National Accounts
Balancing procedures
Methods of extrapolation; problems of intertemporal and international comparability
Problems of valuation; tables in constant prices; productivity
The determining role of basic statistics; use of basic statistics with a view to technologies; feedbacks into primary statistics
IO-statistics and the review of the SNA

It is again intended to publish the papers in a proceedings volume.

The Conference language will be English.
