

IMPROVING INFLATION AND RELATED PERFORMANCE
MEASURES FOR NATIONS

1. Improving Inflation and Related Performance Measures for Nations: An Introduction

Robert J. Hill and Alice O. Nakamura

IMPROVING THE PPPs

2. New Methodological Developments for the International Comparison Program

Erwin Diewert

3. Stochastic Approach to Index Numbers for Multilateral Price Comparisons and Their Standard Errors

Gholamreza Hajargasht and D. S. Prasada Rao

4. Extrapolation of Purchasing Power Parities Using Multiple Benchmarks and Auxiliary Information: A New Approach

D. S. Prasada Rao, Alicia Rambaldi and Howard Doran

DEALING WITH THE GROWTH OF MULTINATIONAL FIRMS

5. Measuring the Location of Production in a World of Intangible Productive Assets, FDI, and Intrafirm Trade

Robert E. Lipsey

6. Offshoring and Productivity: A Micro-Data Analysis

Jianmin Tang and Henrique do Livramento

INTANGIBLE ASSETS AND SERVICES

7. Intangible Assets and National Income Accounting

Leonard I. Nakamura

8. Are Service Firms Affected by Exchange Rate Movements?

Jen Baggs, Eugene Beaulieu and Loretta Fung

SPECIAL AREAS OF METHODOLOGY DEBATE

9. Terms of Trade Effects: Theory and Measurement

Marshall B. Reinsdorf

10. The Wrongs and Rights of Unit Value Indices

Mick Silver

11. An Assumption-Free Framework for Measuring Productivity Change

Bert M. Balk

We dedicate this issue to W. Erwin Diewert, a stellar scholar, teacher, mentor of many, and friend.

Robert J. Hill and Alice O. Nakamura

June 2010

W. Erwin Diewert, the teacher and mentor