

ANNOUNCEMENT

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The 1992 Meetings of the International Institute of Public Finance will be held in Seoul, Korea from August 24-28th, 1992, and will focus on the topic "The Implications of Demographic Changes for Public Finance."

About 45 papers will be presented on this topic, and you are invited to submit an abstract for consideration. The issues to be addressed include the impacts of migration (including changing borders); family composition and changing age structure on public investments, public and private pensions; income distribution; public revenues and debt; welfare, education and health expenditures; tax and savings policies and public policies regarding land use.

In addition to formal sessions there will also be round tables focusing on one or two background issues papers. You may submit an abstract for either a formal session or a roundtable session. A selection of approximately one half of the papers will be published by Public Finance/Finances Publiques.
