

Announcement of IARIW-OECD Conference on Economic Insecurity:
Measurement, Causes and Policy Implications
November 22–23, 2011, Paris, France

The International Association for Research on Income and Wealth and the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development will hold an international conference on the topic of economic security November 22–23, 2011 at the OECD Conference Centre in Paris, France.

Theoretical and empirical papers on the measurement and analysis of economic insecurity and vulnerability, and the implications for economic growth, well-being and policies, will be presented. A special issue of the IARIW's journal, the Review of Income and Wealth, containing selected papers from the conference will be published in 2012. The preliminary program is posted on the IARIW homepage (www.iariw.org).

The Organizing Committee for the conference is composed by Romina Boarini (OECD) romina.boarini@oecd.org, Conchita D'Ambrosio (Università di Milano-Bicocca and DIW Berlin) conchita.dambrosio@unibocconi.it, Marco Mira d'Ercole (OECD) marco.mira@oecd.org and Lars Osberg (Dalhousie University) Lars.Osberg@dal.ca.
